MRS. JACK SAW TWO RESCUES.

Boston Society Woman Invited Freezing Boys Into Parlor.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Boston, Mass., Jan. 7.—Preferring to assist home in their freezing wet clothes and risk an attack of pneumonia, a boy who had just been rescued from drowning and one of his rescuers, who had also received a wetting, declined an invitation from Mrs. "Jack" Gardner to enter her parlor and dry their clothing.

The accident occurred in front of Mrs. Gardner's residence, W. C. Temple of the Hotel Lexington and his wife were passing along when they heard cries from a pond opposite Mr. Doyle's ran to the spot, accompanied by a stranger. A boy was clinging to the edge of the broken ice. With Mr. Doyle held his hand the stranger endeavored to pull the boy out. The ice broke and he also went into the water. Mr. Doyle then rescued both.

VANISHES FOR FIVE YEARS.

J. A. Lafr. Returning Home. Finds Wife Dead, Property Gone.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Bellingham, Wash., Jan. 7.—Five years ago John A. Lafr left a fortune, his wife, a son, a daughter, and disappeared. Recently a former acquaintance recognized the long-missing man under the name of Louis A. John, then night clerk in the Hotel Byron, this city, and through this man the daughter of John A. Lafr learned that her father was not dead, but alive and well, and so a mystery of years was solved.

When Lafr left his home at Lafayette, Ind., he, together with the Stocker brothers, conducted the Lafr Hotel, one of the best-known hotels in the State, and he was one of Lafayette's respected citizens. He left without a word, and assumed another name because he did not want either relatives or friends to know where he was going. His disappearance created a great sensation, and for a long time the country was searched in the hope of finding him.

His wife grieved until she died, three years ago.
For five years Lafr has been dead to his former life and friends. His children have married. The property of Mr. Lafr has been distributed, and the estate of his father, worth millions, has been divided among his seven children.
55 Years Old; Died Suddenly.
North Attleboro, Mass., Jan. 7.—Mrs.

Emeline Blanchard Blackinton, the oldest resident of this place, is dead, in her ninety-eighth year at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George A. Warren, on Thicket street. Death was due to old age, as Mrs. Blackinton had been strong and well until the past few days.
Boat Crushed, Men Drowned.
REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Ogdensburg, N. Y., Jan. 7.—Nelson Rennie and Webb Rollins attempted to cross the St. Lawrence River in an open boat, and were caught in floating ice.

was upset and crushed and Rollins was drowned. Rennie, clinging to floating ice until his clothing froze to it and a ferry steamer rescued him. He was badly frozen.
Fell Head Waiting for Car.
REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 7.—While waiting for a trolley car here which would have taken him to Schuylkill Haven to visit his daughter, Edward Boyer dropped dead. He was 75 years old.
